Dear Alan and Diane,

Today, as I write this letter of appreciation for your gift to ACMNP, I think about the beauty of the National Parks and the wonderful opportunity that we have to be there, to work and lead worship, and to enjoy these magnificent places. Two passages come to mind which gives perspective to this thought.

John Muir writes about Alaska Glaciers:

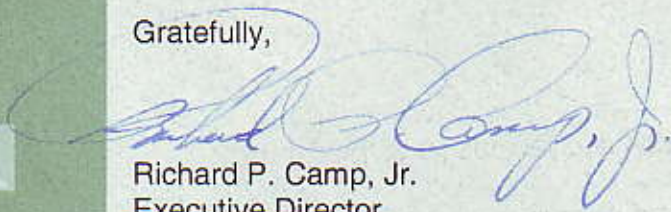

"One learns that the world, though made, is yet being made. That this is still the morning of creation. That mountains, long conceived, are now being born, brought to light by the glaciers, channels traced for rivers, basins hollowed for lakes..."

This creative procession of time is put into perspective by the opening words of Psalm 90:

"Our Lord, in all generations you have been our home.
You have always been God—
long before the birth of the mountains,
even before you created the earth and the world"

You have enabled us to continue the work of telling of God's timeless truth to the millions of people who come to the National Parks. Your gift of $125.00 will enable ACMNP to advance the exciting mission that God has given to us. We are grateful for your support and delighted that you have become a partner with us.

Gratefully,

Richard P. Camp, Jr.
Executive Director
