

A CHRISTIAN MINISTRY
IN THE NATIONAL PARKS

May 27, 2009

Dear Alan,

During June, I and my administrative staff head out to the national parks to visit our summer ministry volunteers who are beginning to lead their services of worship. Throughout the summer, ACMNP ministry staff members provide Christian hospitality to fellow employees and to people vacationing in the parks. During a recent conversation with ACMNP staff members in Rocky Mountain National Park, some typical questions & concerns emerged: "I'm having difficulty putting together my sermon. What should I say?"; "What if nobody shows up?"; "Where can I find the worship bulletins?"; "How do I start connecting with other workers in the park?"; "My fellow staff members come from different backgrounds than I, what do I do?" etc.... I've enjoyed offering guidance as they discover answers for themselves.

I am pleased that ACMNP doesn't provide every answer for our staff. Answers seem to come easy these days – everyone has a solution to the problems that come up in our lives. I even caught myself the other day trying to offer a quick answer. I said to someone, "Just Google it." In a world that exalts definitiveness & clarity, ACMNP provides opportunities for people to discover answers for themselves through rigorous work, exploration, and an unflinching belief that the Holy Spirit will guide them. It's fun to be on the front lines witnessing this process.

Please know that your gift of $200.00 helps to put our summer staff in situations where they can discover answers for themselves. We covet your support and thank you for your belief in what God is doing through ACMNP. Please plan on stopping by one of our services this summer. See you in the Park.

Joyfully,

Spencer
