Dear Alan and Diane,

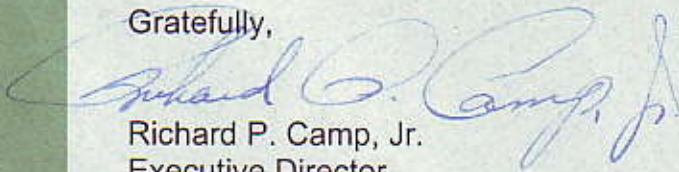

Seminarian Kevin Barbour compared serving with ACMNP in Glacier National Park during the summer of 2005 to his experience of climbing Mt. Siyeh in Glacier. The view from the top of the mountain "was the kind of beauty that could only be witnessed first-hand and only for a short time...ACMNP must likewise be experienced first-hand, in a particular situation, at a particular time to be appreciated fully for what it is: an indescribably unique smorgasbord of experiences, interactions, people, and events that converge to transform the participant who is living out a call to discipleship."

~~Our staff of 230 experienced this incredible uniqueness while serving with ACMNP in 2005. They carry with them their transformative experiences of work, worship, and witness in a National Park. As with Kevin, they "forget all about the hardship of climbing Mt. Siyeh, remember all the good parts, and are ready to do it all over again."~~

Last year you vitalized these experiences with your contribution of $156 and I ask you to consider a generous gift for 2005. Your participation will help us give a Christian interpretation to the grandeur of the National Park experience.

A copy of our 2004 Annual Report is enclosed. The testimonies and photos should stir your enthusiasm for being and seeing the face of God in some of the most beautiful places in the world. God's glory is on tour – and we are excited to tell about it!

Gratefully,

Richard P. Camp, Jr.
