Dear Alan and Diane,

Football takes center stage in our sports culture at this time of year, although baseball playoffs and the World Series will also get attention. But I am feeling more like a basketball coach who lost most of his players to graduation. Now is the time to recruit and rebuild for the season ahead. In ACMNP we are already looking ahead to next summer and building a strong ministry staff, but we must first do a hefty job of recruiting at scores of colleges and universities across the country.

Thank you for your gift to ACMNP in the amount of $70.00. Your support adds consistency to our mission, providing a strong base from which we can build our 2007 team of Christian leaders for ministry in the National Parks.

Besides preparing for next summer, ACMNP Ministry Staff will also serve this winter in the Virgin Islands, Grand Canyon, Bryce, Big Bend, and Death Valley National Parks. Our ministry of celebrating God's majestic creation and participating in God's dynamic re-creation is a winning strategy for a 21st century world.

Cordially,

Richard P. Camp, Jr.
Executive Director
